WHEREAS, [illegible] founded on the [illegible] of [illegible] principles and [illegible];

WHEREAS, [illegible] and,

WHEREAS, There [illegible] and influence exerted upon [illegible] distribution of materials designed to [illegible] principles; and,

WHEREAS, The [illegible] Court, in recognition of this danger, has upheld the rights of communities to control this traffic; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Legislature, via the Chief Executive of the State, has enacted legislation authorizing communities to control this traffic;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do proclaim that Tuesday, April 8, 1975, be a day of decency in the State of South Dakota, and that on this date the voters of Rapid City be encouraged to stand behind their leaders in setting forth the guidelines that control pornography and obscene materials in their community, and that they be further commended for taking active leadership within our State to protect the moral values and high principles of the citizens of our State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, [illegible] day of April, in the year of our Lord, [illegible] hundred and seventy-five.

R.F. Kneip

[illegible]

ATTEST:

Jean Bluuson, Asst.

[illegible] SECRETARY OF STATE